

I am opposed to more media consolidation. In a diverse Democratic country such as ours, we need access to more points of view not less.